

Katherine Gentry

Katie Gentry is a second year Public Administration Master's student at Portland State University, specializing in Sustainable Development. She a "double Viking", who graduated summa cum laude from PSU.

Prior to her return to her university studies, Katie enjoyed a successful career training horses in rural Oregon. She currently interns for Multnomah County's Sustainability Program and looks forward to a career involving the development of sustainable local transportation policy.

She is deeply honored to have been chosen as the APWA Mike Lindberg scholarship award winner.

Many thanks,

Katie Gentry
